Three Rioja Vega wines have been awarded a gold medal in the latest edition of Mundus Vini 2021, held in the German city of Neustadt an der Weinstrasse. Mundus Vini is one of the most influential international competitions on the current scene, where experts evaluate the quality of wines from all over the world.

The three gold medals have gone to Rioja Vega Venta Jalón 2014, Rioja Vega Gran Reserva 2014 y Rioja Vega Colección Tempranillo 2019. The objective of Mundus Vini is to promote quality and offer a forum to consumers that allows the comparison of different wines in order to facilitate guidance and the final purchase decision.

Rioja Vega Venta Jalón 2014, Rioja Vega Gran Reserva 2014 y Rioja Vega Colección Tempranillo 2019 thus add a new recognition to their list of awards, among which are the Gold Medal obtained by Rioja Vega Venta Jalón 2014 at Berliner Wein Trophy, and the Gold Medal won by Rioja Vega Gran Reserva 2013 at Rioja Masters or the Gold Medal for RV Colección Tempranillo Tinto 2018 at Tempranillos World competition.

This success is not a single day's work, but the product of more than 135 years of caring for the vineyards. A journey and an experience that have shown what Rioja Vega discovered long ago. All our efforts go towards making sure that the unique character of our vineyards are shown to best effect in our wines.
